

The Board of Selectmen held a retreat on December 15, 2015 at Town Hall with First Selectman Robert Morra presiding. Also in attendance were Selectmen Mike Eremita, Robert Neil, Gwen Marrison and Sandra Pierog.

The retreat began at 7:03 P.M. The Selectmen discussed fiscal matters capital projects up to $10 million. Discussion included the Notch Road Municipal Center, Town Garage, Heritage Farm, and other capital projects as well as future ability for additional debt service. By consensus, the selectmen agreed to have the Administrative Officer submit a STEAP grant application for the Town Facilities community septic system in the center of Town. The board agreed to hold another retreat in the first quarter of 2016.

The retreat ended at 9:00 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,
